DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 9 fails to set forth any method steps. The claim defines a method for applying general industrial coatings by a method comprising applying the coating. The claim defines the procedure of applying by the step of applying. The claim does not particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

3. The method of claim 10 is also defined as applying the coating composition. Claims 9 and 10 are not differentiated, since they use the exact same method steps.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-8 and 13-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by EP 0 814 104.

Art Unit: 1714

6. The reference anticipates the use of at least one 1,3,5 triazine compound corresponding directly to those of the present claims. The description of at least one indicates that more than one may be present. Therefor, a mixture of these compounds is anticipated. The compounds are formulated into coatings. See claims 1, 9 and 16 and page 4, line 6 through page 5, line 32.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over EP 0 814 104 as applied to claims 1-8 and 13-19 above, in view of the EP 0 814 104 patented disclosure at page 7, Examples 1 and 2 and further in view of WO 98/18856.

9. The reference describes a method for making carbamate-modified melamine wherein a base is mixed with the melamine, followed by addition of an organic carbamate, neutralization by an acid purification of the substance by vacuum strip and addition of alcohol. The process differs from applicant's process in the purification method. Filtering and washing of substances is a well known purification process in the art. This is documented by WO 98/18856, in Example 1, wherein carbamate-modified melamines are produced. In the absence of unexpected results attributable to the purification step of filtering and washing, the use of either filtering and washing or vacuum strip would have been well within the realms of the ordinary practitioner of this art absent a clear showing of unexpected results attributable to the purification step.

10. Claim 1-8 and 13-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(ab) as being unpatentable over WO 98/18856, Forgione et al., US Patent No. 4710542, Gehret et al., US Patent No. 4732899, Gupta et al., 5852133, and Flood et al, US Patent No. 6063922.

11. The WO 98/18856 reference discloses the use of mixtures of 1,3,5 triazine compound corresponding directly to those of the present claims. The references to Forgione et al., Gehret et al., Gupta et al. and Flood et al. disclose carbamate modified triazine compounds that directly correspond to those of applicant's mixtures of compounds. The patents are silent to the percentages of carbamate groups present on the triazine rings. However, the presence of the carbamates is inherent to the compositions and there is overlap in the present and patented triazine structures, rendering applicant's claims obvious. The triazine compounds of the patents are formulated into coatings.

12. See the WO 98/18856 reference at the abstract; claims 1, 4 and 6 and page 5, line 1 through page 7, line 6.

13. See claim 1 of Forgione et al., Gehret et al., Gupta et al. and Flood et al.
